

George H. Amos, III

CEO, Designated Broker

hank@tucsonrealty.com

George H. Amos, III, known by his friends as “Hank”, is forty-seven years old and a third generation Tucsonan. He graduated from the University of Arizona in 1981 and is Chairman of the Board & CEO of Tucson Realty & Trust Co. Incorporated in 1911, over 95 years ago, Tucson Realty & Trust Co. is Arizona’s oldest real estate company. Mr. Amos was consistently a top producer for TRT specializing in industrial and land sales as well as residential sales in his early years with the company.

Professional Designation

GRI

Education

University of Arizona, B.S.

Community Involvement

MEMBERSHIPS: (PAST, PRESENT) • Southern Arizona Leadership Council (Founder) • Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Tucson • Pima County Real Estate Research Council • Western Canamex Coalition • Junior Achievement • Board of Trustees, Carondelet St. Joseph’s Hospital Foundation (President 1991-1993) • Business Advisory Council & Management Review Task Force, Tucson Unified School District • University of Arizona Cancer Center Co-Chairman (Co-Chairman 1993-1994) • University of Arizona Cultural Affairs • Greater Tucson Economic Counsel • Commissioner, City of Tucson Civil Service Commission • Regent, Arizona Board of Regents (President 2000)

COMMUNITY CHAIRMANSHIPS: • St. Joseph’s Hospital Benefit • Fife Symington for Governor - Finance Chairman (So. AZ) • Matt Salmon for Governor - Campaign Chairman (So. AZ)

HONORS: • “Man of the Year” City of Hope • “Big Brother of the Year” • “Who’s Who Among U.S. Executives” • “Who’s Who in the West” • “Who’s Who in America” • “Who’s Who in Luxury Real Estate” • “Honor Roll” Tucson Unified School District • University of Arizona Alumni Association - Centennial Achievement Award

Since 1911