

Mick Cluck

Investment Specialist

mcluck@tucsonrealty.com

Mick moved to Tucson in 1973 to attend the University of Arizona. Graduating with a degree in Anthropology in 1975, he began his career in real estate selling homes for Denton Realty. Apart from a two year stint in the horse racing business he has always been active in the brokerage and investment business of real property. Mick specializes in the sale of investment and residential income properties.

Professional Designation

CCIM
Associate Broker

Education

University of Arizona, B.A.

Community Involvement

Board Member: The Quarry
Board Member: Western American Art Patrons/Tucson
Museum of Art

Since 1911